THE YEAR '45-6 was the year of the warriors' return. In September school opened with the old stagers plus Mr. Faust, Miss Lola Smith, Mrs. Wilson, and Mrs. Riisman in residence. In October Mr. Henningfeld, late of the Navy, replaced Mrs. Riisman. In November Mr. Nelson transferred from the Eighth Air Force (Ipswich, England branch) to Adams to replace Mrs. Wilson.

At the semester break Mrs. Scott and Miss Smith left. Mr. Primer of the Navy and Major Dake who had spent three years making the exotic Australia to Luzon tour with the Fourteenth Air Force returned. In the same time Mr. Yanetovich also of the Air Force came back and Miss Bauer from Central took over the girls' physical education. The year closed with the faculty looking pretty much like its pre-war self.

Class of '46

DURING its last year at John Adams the Class of 1946 was led by Bob Nitz, president; Al Smith, vice-president; Bob Thoner, secretary; and Bob Bayman, treasurer. Miss Puterbaugh, class sponsor, was assisted by Mr. McNamara, Mr. Dickey, Mr. Henningfeld, and Mr. Reber. The senior cabinet was composed of Frances Bickel, 107; Margaret Jahnke, 204; Regina Freels, 106; and Thom Rutherford, 208. Heading the special senior committees were Peter McNamee, Baccalaureate and Commencement Chairman; and Janice Van Houten, Senior Assembly Chairman.

Class Day, May 20, found the seniors finishing final exams and attending the senior awards assembly. There the names of many honor students were revealed. Marion Grassby and Garrett Flickinger were announced as co-valedictorians and LeRoy Brown was named salutatorian. The first two received the Jeweled Student Council Scholarship Award, while LeRoy, Margaret Jahnke, Lynette Minzey, and Tom McMurray were given the Gold Student Council Award. Silver awards were presented to Evelyn Fineberg, Dick Guin, Joan LaCosse, and Beverly Kinch. Betty Furnish of the January graduating class also received the jeweled pin as high ranking student. The D.A.R. United States History Award was conferred upon LeRoy Brown and Betty Furnish received the D.A.R. Good Citizenship Award. Janice Van Houten and Dick Guin were the recipients of the John Adams Citizenship Awards. Other outstanding awards included the Bausch and Lomb Science Medals presented to Leroy Brown and Marion Grassby, the Parent-Teachers Association Home Economics Award given to Ruth Ann Fisher, and the Parent-Teachers Association Industrial Arts Award conferred upon Donald Egendoerfer. Orville Thornberg received the Studebaker Local No. 5 Industrial Arts Award.

Student Council

During this past year the Student Council has had two main projects on its agenda. One has been that of composing a book of rules for the incoming sophomores. This work is expected to extend over a period of several years but committees of representatives have been laying the foundation this year for the book.

Other members have worked out a plan for the revision of the system for making Student Council Scholarship Awards. The plan has been adopted and will be used in the future for determining these awards.

Officers for the year of 1945-46 have been Dick Guin, President; Janice Van Houten; Vice President; Al Smith, Secretary; and Curtis Heckaman, Treasurer.

Drama Club

THIS year the Drama Club had a full schedule which included a three act play, "Under the Gaslight", two cokes to welcome the incoming sophomores, and a one act play, "The Happy Journey" which was presented to members of the John Adams P.T.A. to aid them in raising funds. The year saw several new actors and actresses brought to the lime-light. Pat Kissinger, a sophomore, was the heroine of the fall melodrama. Gene Yundt turned in a remarkable performance as the villain in the same play. Lila Smith who played the Mother in "The Happy Journey" was superb.

Officers for the year were Jean Steinmetz, president; Betty Lou Bryant, vice president; Janice Van Houten, secretary; Jerry Gibson, treasurer; and Nancy Bartol, program chairman.

Band

John Adams Band was rewarded for its hard work this year with a first division rating in the district band contest held in Goshen under the auspices of the Indiana State Band, Orchestra, and Vocal Music Association on April 16. This achievement entitled the band and its various soloists and ensembles to compete in the State Band and Solo Contests held in Plymouth and Nappanee respectively. At Nappanee Carolyn Deardorff, Ted High, Paul Wolfrum and a clarinet ensemble received honors.

The group played for football and basketball games, gave concerts at Nuner and Jefferson Junior High Schools, participated in various band clinics, and gave a spring concert at Adams in which the massed bands of the junior highs assisted.

Outstanding numbers at the spring concert included the "Lincoln Overture", and "Peter and the Wolf". In this last number Patty Guyon acted as narrator and brought down the house with her ingenuous delivery.

Ushers' Club

AS ALWAYS, the John Adams Ushers Club has had a very busy season. The boys have been on hand for each and every concert, play, and basketball game. Mr. Weir has gone in for quality rather than quantity this year and has developed a very efficient group. On many occasions ushers from Central have been imported to help with the crowds. Our club deserves much praise for the fine job they have done all year.

During the fall semester Jack Wright was head usher, the position now held by Peter McNamee. Captain ushers are Howard Walker, Joel Bullard, Tom Glaser, and Dick Robinson.

ON MAY 20, 1946, the Tower staff of 1945-'46 realized the completion of Volume VI, 31 issues in all --- the greatest number of issues to be published thus far in one year.

who also wrote the column "AROUND ADAMS," and Sports Editor, Jimmie McNeile. The business side of the paper was handled by the Advertising Manager Joan Siney, and the Circulation Manager, Jerry Bessler. Miss Florence Roell continued in her position as Faculty Advisor.

In addition to the publication of the school paper, members of the Tower staff retained an honor which has long been theirs--- that of welcoming the new sophomore classes to John Adams each semester.

A chapter of Quill and Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists, was inaugurated at Adams this year with 13 charter members. The members are selected in accordance with a five point requirement plan.

Screen

MR. ROTHERMEL, sponsor of the Screen Club, selected Wally Goffeney as the president of the service organization that has the responsibility of running all movies for the school.

Wally, with the assistance of Kevin Naarre, doled out the various assignments to the workers. Those two boys spent many hours in assembling the apparatus, and checking the different operators' study halls to fit the needs of the classes desiring movies.

Visual education has become an ever increasing part of the school system. The Screen Club offers excellent opportunity for boys to operate the movie projector for their own satisfaction, but moreover, lends invaluable help to the students who benefit from the operator's work, patience, and training.

Girl Reserves

UNDER the leadership of Miss Rohrer and Pat Thompson the John Adams Girl Reserves have had a wide and varied program. Among their many projects has been the furnishing of a large box of food, clothing, and toys for a local needy family. This was done during the Christmas season. The Girl Reserves also sponsored the sale of Christmas seals at Adams. From the social standpoint the girls have enjoyed themselves too. Earlier this year they inaugurated the "friendship coke" which they hope to make an annual event. With the Hi-Y they sponsored two record dances in the Little Theater after basketball games. All the Girl Reserves in the city and Mishawaka attended the "Raindrop Polka" on April 26 at the Progress Club.

Mr. Goldsberry

Mr. Krider

Mr. Powell

Mr. Neff

COACH Alonzo Goldsberry ended a long and colorful coaching career by cutting three victory notches in a somewhat drab five year football history of John Adams High School. The head coach's retirement came after giving the Eagles more wins than an east side eleven has ever possessed in one season.

These victories were from Plymouth, Elkhart, and Michigan

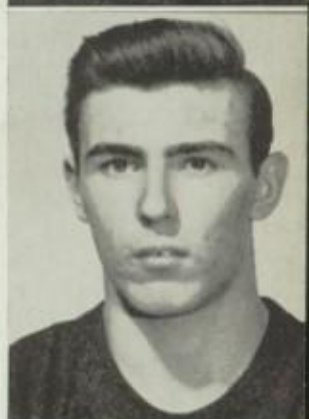

City. The Coshen battle was a tie, and along with five defeats, the Eagle gridmen completed the 1945 season.

The team looked fairly rugged in their season debut with Mishawaka. Tackle Glen Tully picked up a Maroon fumble that set up the Eagles' only score, which came on a twenty-six yard pass from Curt Heckaman to Bob Nitz. Frank Wulf caught another Heckaman pitch for the extra point. The Cavemen refused to cooperate any farther and won the game 18-6.

September 15 saw the skeptical band of Adams warriors meet Central's all-state halfback "Posey" Flowers and the greeting was anything but cordial as the Central team turned the game to a 39-0 rout. Regular halfbacks Stevens and Heckaman were on the sick list, their posts being filled by Howell and Walters.

Hungry for victory the team followers that treked to Coshen were content with the 7-7 tie accorded to them on another Heckaman to Nitz pass combination. Wulf added the extra point.

September 29 was a field night for lanky Bob Nitz, who caught his third money pass to lead the conference in scoring. This was the annual Riley encounter, in which Adams was riddled to a 41-6 defeat. Injuries again hampered full strength in the line-up.

The 1944 state champs, Washington's Panthers, used their first eleven only a few minutes in the entire game with Adams, but led by half-back "Bobby" Robertson a few minutes were all that were necessary in running up a 25-0 victory. The team played an inspired game though, and paced by guard Leroy Kelly, many Panther tails were twisted behind the line of scrimmage.

Victory night was October 12 at Lincoln Field, Plymouth. Little Curt Heckaman passed to Nitz and Stevens for touchdowns and added two more by his superb broken field running. "Chuck" Murphy threw to Wulf for one extra point as the Eagles cracked the Plymouth "Rock" 25-7.

The following week, the red and blue whipped over two startling scores in the first five minutes of play and then beat off continual attacks from their foe to win 13-7 over Elkhart. Little Curt hit Nitz for three passes in as many attempts for the first score. Heckaman tallied the other marker from four yards out after a 50 yard drive.

Laporte's Slicers refused to be frightened over the Eagles win streak and cut out a 33 - 14 win in the final home game. The two scores came on passes from Heckaman to Wulf and Roys. Stevens and Bradley added the extra points.

In the year's final match, the team fired Michigan City's Imps to a 19 - 0 defeat. Murphy and Wulf hit pay dirt on passes from Heckaman, while Gene Bradley scooped up a blocked punt and scampered away for the third score.

The annual banquet on November 26 had as the principle speaker, George Basker. The squad was well entertained, and saw awards given to Leroy Kelly as the most valuable lineman; Curtis Heckaman, backfield; the Kiwanis most valuable team member award to Robert Nitz; and the honorary captaincy to Glen Zubler.

"B" Team Football

THE JOHN ADAMS junior football team was flatly denied any major victories in league play, but throughout the season molded some fine future varsity material.

Coaches Krider and Neff passed on much valuable information to their charges, and also by virtue of a ten game card much experience was rendered to the boys.

The squad was about three deep in every position, and in order to give the assistance and game fundamentals to all, many games were scheduled.

The "B Team" purpose was achieved when, at the season's end, many potential stars were ready for the next year's varsity.

Basketball

THE JOHN ADAMS basketball team opened their season with a victory over Washington Clay. Then after six straight defeats, the team won their match with Lakeville which just preceded the holiday tourney. There the boys defeated Nappanee's Bulldogs but fell before Riley's powerful team.

The new year brought a winning streak of four games, which included wins over Mishawaka, East Chicago, Michigan City, and Culver. Our team met Culver, this year's regional champions, on January fifteenth and although we trailed them through three-quarters of the game we defeated them because of a fourteen point rally in the fourth quarter which was led by Roland Fye.

Next came a defeat by Washington. Following these games were victories over Plymouth and Fort Wayne. The latter game was won in an over-time which ended in a score of 40-39. Chuck Murphy contributed eleven points in this game. The third meeting with Riley proved no more successful than the previous two even though Tim Howard scored seventeen points. The boys warmed up for sectional play by defeating Nappanee and encountering Elkhart.

The sectional tournament provided all the thrills that the Adams fans were waiting for. Adams was paired with Riley and the future looked dark but incredibly enough the victory went to Adams. Tim Howard led the boys into an over-time which resulted in a score of 40 - 36. The team wound up its season by being defeated by Central in the next game of tourney play.

Bob Nitz was the season's high point man with a total of 178 points.

Tim Howard was next with 173, 91 of which he scored in conference games. Tim had an average of 8.6 points per game and also scored 22 alone in the conference game with Nappanee. Other scorers were: Glen

"B" Team Basketball

JOHN ADAMS' junior netters, the "B Team" really whooped it up in the '45-'46 season and came through with the most successful stint in the school's history.

Fifteen wins in nineteen games surpasses the varsity's showing, and to add more glory, the Eagles annexed the Plymouth "B Team" Invitational tourney.

Using Juniors for the first time, Coach Rollo Neff concocted a winning line up in Bill Green, Dave Cox, Rodney Million, George Granberry, and Harold Ziker.

Highlights were three victories over Mishawaka, two from Riley, one by a 31-10 count, and the season finals which was a 33-38 win at the expense of Elkhart.

Harold "the jug" Ziker amassed the highest total of 180 points, which even surpassed the high man on the varsity. Set shot artist Dave Cox collected a total of 112, Bill Green got 90, Granberry 76, and Mililon 35 points.

The squad of nine juniors and six sophomores molded with four varsity holdovers should form a powerful nucleus for next year's varsity.

Ziker's potentialities as an under-the-basket man are very enlightning, for it was his tip in, and follow up shots that boasted his point total. Cox and Million, the play makers, are both excellent ball handlers, and should develop rapidly in the next year. Bill Green's height and hook shot accounted for his recognition, while George Granberry was the mainstay of the first five. His consistent point getting was remarkable.

Substitutes seeing considerable action were rugged Don Simon at center, Dick Trim, a sophomore, at guard, Johnny Wiessert, another guard, and Jerry Gibson at the forward spot.

Other team members were Don Lambert, Dave Irwin, Keith Ziders, Dave Coker, John Keller, and Howard Nevins.

Baseball

STARTING the 1946 baseball season with five veterans on hand, Coach Rollo Neff rounded his starters in two weeks of practice for the opening game with Mishawaka.

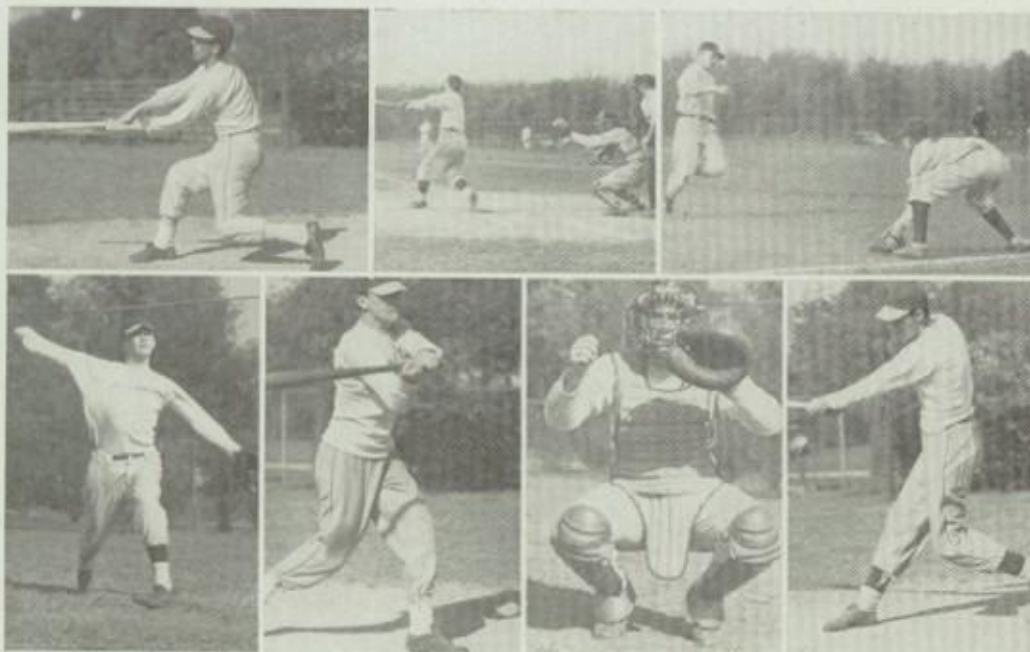

The Maroons won that first game 2 - 0. Walt Pickavet and Dick Jensen shared pitching duties.

After losing two more games, victory finally came from the south side way. Led by hurlers Pickavet and Dan Dolde, the team shut out Riley 1 - 0. Tim Howard's .666 batting helped considerably.

Central offered the first conference resistance, and won 1 - 0 in a close match. Elkhart's Blazers invaded the Eagle diamond for the second league game and returned home with a 4 - 0 victory. Laporte handed the Adamites their first conference win by a 3 - 1 score as Jensen fanned sixteen Slicer batsmen. Michigan City's defending NIHSC champions kept their slate clean by whipping Adams 5 - 3 in the fourth league tilt.

The first nine, and the three main pitchers on the team are underclassmen, a fact which would brighten up an otherwise drab season.

Hurlers Dick Jensen, Dan Dolde, and Walt Pickavet were all juniors, while relief pitcher, Bob Weese, was a senior.

Bill Roberts anchored the plate very well. Dick Trim patrolled first base, and Dave Coker played in left field efficiently. These three have two years remaining for varsity duties. Trim was also a leading batter.

Juniors Dave Cox and Fred Wegner played third base and right field respectively, and also have a good eye at the plate.

Tim Howard, Curt Heckaman, and Glen Zubler complete the starting roster. Their services were their last in high school. Little Heckaman's superb fielding, and Zubler and Howard's hitting were a great help to the squad.

Reserves Bill Adelsperger, Eddie White, Keith Zieders, Wayne Woolworth, and George Cranberry are becoming competent players as the season progresses.

COUNTER CLOCKWISE: Trim pops up, Heckaman hits against Michigan City. Cox has him out at third, Jensen fires a fast one, Zubler, Roberts, and Zubler demonstrate how to.

Track

EIGHT veterans with considerable experience bolstered John Adams' chances for a successful track season in the 1946 year.

Juggling of the event line ups resulted in the losing of some matches, but the Eagles are expected to explode powerful guns at the coming sectional and conference meets.

The first dual meet with Goshen was won by one point. Six firsts and both relays were in the Eagles favor, but some departments looked very ragged even for the season debut.

Hampered by cold weather and a field ruling that contestants could enter only one event, the team failed against Elkhart in a dual affair. Danny Walters broke his previous low hurdle record with a sizzling: 24.5.

A troupe of boys guided by Coach Krider, invaded Foreman Field for the postwar Goshen Relays held April 20, and in a roster of "freak" events captured ninth place. Shafer and Gibson were outstanding in the high jump and broad jump respectively.

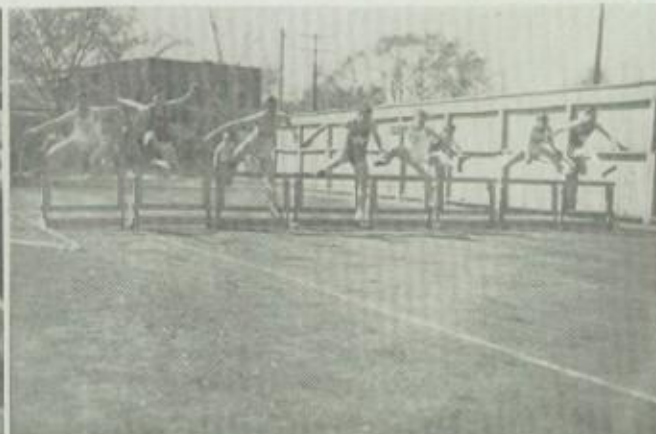

Michigan City gained their conquest over the Eagles April 22 by the narrow margin of points gained in the final relay event. Shafer again dominated the scene with his field record high jump of 6'3/4. Jerry Gibson boosted his broad jump mark to 20' 11".

At this writing, the City Quadrangular is last on the agenda of matches already played. In that meet, Central nosed out the Eagles in another closely contested match that was decided in the final event.

Heading the list of individual point collectors would be John Shafer, and Chuck Murphy. Shafer's jumping has netted him three field records this year, and undoubtedly will lead him down state. He is a solid member of the fast stepping mile relay four and usually wins a first in the high hurdles. Speedy little Murphy guns the 440 and 100 yard dashes, and holds Adams records in both of them. He also is on the mile relay team.

Other sterling senior performers are Frank Wulf in the 40 and mile relay; Don Egendorfer, dashes and 880 relay; Bob Nitz, broad jump and 880 relay; Dick Guin, dashes; Emory Thomas as a hurdler, and spunky little Bill Baker in the 880 yard run and mile relay.

Junior standouts include shot putters Jackson and Stevens; Dave Irwin, distance runner; Dan Walters in low hurdles, 220 yard dash, and 880 relay; Fye and Leonhard in the high jump; Bob Smith, hurdles; and Jerry Gibson in the broad jump, dashes and 880 relay.

The sophomores with two years of competition left are Ben Jurcik, Jay Osborn, Leroy Barritt, and Lebo Menzie, and Beebe in the pole vault.

The trackmen are expected, as this article is scribed, to most amply defend their sectional crown gained last year, and to send several outstanding contenders to the state meet.

CLOCKWISE: Shafer wins high jump. Gibson finishes 220 in second place. The 220 halfway down the strip. Irwin leads at halfway mark of 880 but couldn't stay ahead of Neises. Start of 880.

TENNIS at Adams in 1945 was at its highest ebb. The squad dominated all matches in scheduled play, but oddly enough, lost out in the conference tourney. Each team member was awarded a monogram.

IF YOU have noticed a group of girls playing volleyball or basketball on the stage every Tuesday and Thursday you may have wondered who they were. They are members of the Girls Athletic Association. Other games in which they participate are badminton, tumbling, baseball, and tennis. Early in February an initiation party was held in the Little Theater to acquaint new members with the rules and aims of the organization.

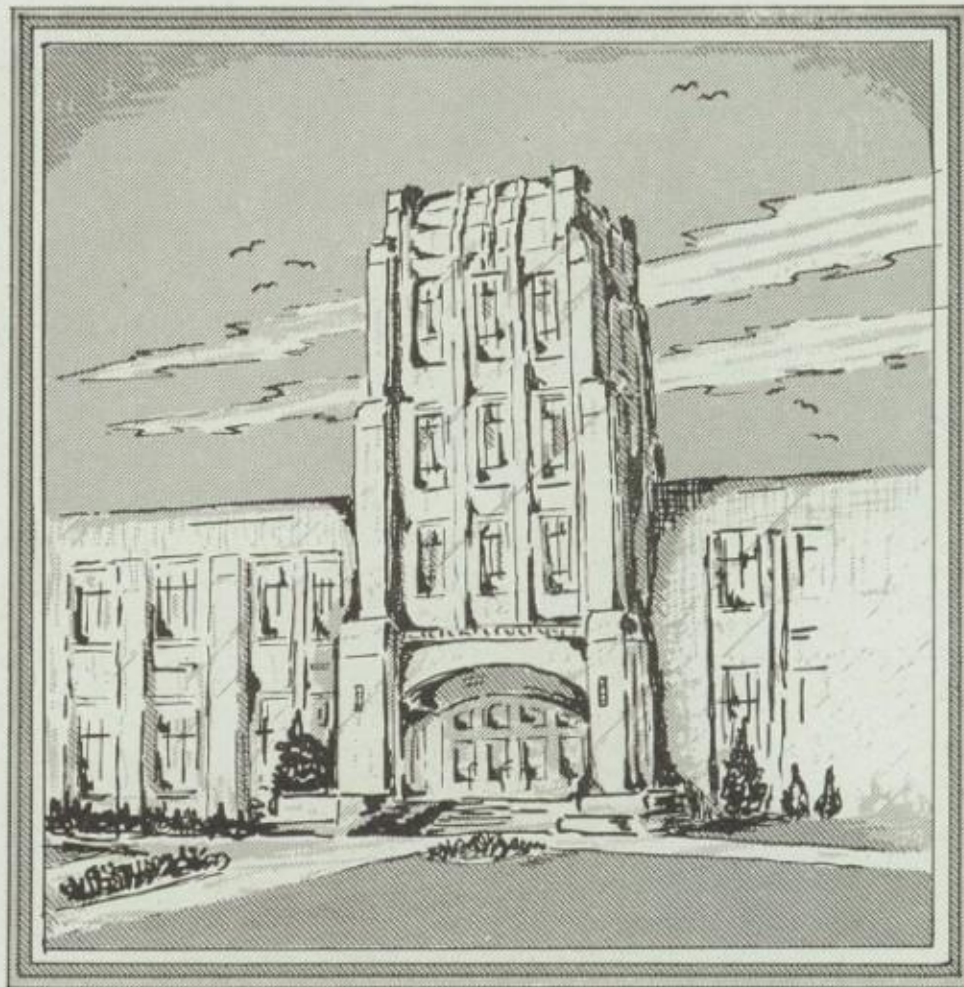

Joyce Meyers has had the office of president during the past year and Lucille Janick has assisted her as vice-president. The duties of secretary and treasurer have been handled by Kathleen Bumann and Norma Miller has acted as sergeant-at-arms.

Debate

*I*N A REGULAR schedule with South Bend Riley, South Bend Central, and Mishawaka the John Adams debating team debated the subject, Resolved: That every able-bodied male citizen in the United States should be required to have one year of full-time military training before attaining the age of twenty-four.

Jean Steinmetz and Charles Ort were the affirmative members of the team and Garrett Flickinger, Charles Cone and Paul Chalfant comprised the negative group. At the end of the school year all of these members received the debate award.

A new idea was inaugurated in debate this year. Instead of debating before only one judge or group of judges, the teams met before the whole student bodies of Mishawaka, Central and Riley. In this way many more people were able to profit from the ideas which were presented.

Glee

ONE OF the many things John Adams is noted for is its Glee Club. About 100 members make up this musical organization which has its own officers and has as its director Mrs. Lawrence T. Pate.

The Glee Club has had a very interesting and enjoyable schedule this year. The traditional Christmas Vesper Service was opened by a candle light processional which has become more elaborate each year.

A large number of members experienced the honor of singing in the North Central Chorus under the direction of Mr. Olaf Christiansen, who has gained the respect of many students from these annual programs.

The club participated in a city wide music festival which included over 1,000 students and was directed by Mr. George Howerton of

Club

Northwestern University. This was greatly enjoyed by everyone and it is hoped that another Festival will be scheduled for next year.

The triple Trio has performed on many occasions and an ensemble of the Glee Club has visited local churches, Kiwanis, and the Progress Club.

A very impressive candle-lighted cross preceded the beautiful Easter Program given before the student body and many parents.

As the Album goes to press the Glee Club is working energetically on its Spring Concert. Many new songs will be introduced and an interesting performance is promised.

Gaslight"

The play was produced in true melodramatic style, the climax being reached when Homer Badgett was tied to the tracks with the train within tooting distance.

Mrs. McClure and Mr. James Casaday, the directors, and members of the many committees deserve a vote of thanks for their valuable contributions.
